IMMEDIATE HELP IS JUST A TEXT AWAY.

Our ancestors teach us that we are sacred. Protecting your heart and your spirit isn't just a choice; it's your right. A strong relationship is built on respect, not control.

HONORING YOUR BOUNDARIES

Setting boundaries isn't "acting up," it's keeping your spirit whole. You have the right to say:

- "I'll follow you, but my passwords are mine."
- "I love talking, but I don't need to be on my phone every hour."
- "I enjoy affection, but I'm not ready for sex."
- "I need time with my friends and my family."
- "I don't like being pressured. My 'no' is enough."

BOUNDARIES ARE HEALTHY.
BOUNDARIES ARE NORMAL.

By Micheal Rios

Our Heritage Hawks put up a good fight against the Lummi Blackhawks when they battled it out for the Tri-District Championship at Muckleshoot.

It was a one point game late in the 3rd quarter, 36-37, before Lummi shifted into championship gear and ran away with the W.

Next up, Tulalip will play Liberty Christian this Saturday, February 28 at noon at Mount Vernon High School.

Mark your calendars and come cheer on your Heritage Hawks.

Mat Classic from front page

By Wade Sheldon

Over two days inside the Tacoma Dome, Mat Classic delivered everything you expect from the state stage — tough wins, even tougher losses, and moments these wrestlers will never forget.

Shoutout to Tribal member Cole Jones Longstreet (ᓐᓄᓐᓄᓐᓄᓐ) for battling his way to an 8th place finish at 165 lbs in the 2A Tournament. Representing on one of the biggest mats in the state.

Marysville Pilchuck's Maxwell Wood-all earned 4th place at 144 lbs in the 2A Tournament after a strong run through a stacked bracket.

Steven Morales fought hard and secured 8th place at 190 lbs, showing grit through every round.

Aiden Eagle stood tall on the podium, taking 4th place at 190 lbs in the 2A Tournament with a series of hard-fought matches.

Gunner Janes finished 8th at 138 lbs, proving he belongs among the state's best.

And congratulations to Tribal member Jacoby Tait of Cashmere for earning 4th place at 190 lbs — another strong showing and proud representation on the state stage.

Mat Classic isn't easy. Every match is earned. Every win comes at a cost. And every loss teaches something. Proud of these young men for leaving it all on the mat and representing their families, their school, and their community the right way
